8 APR → UK TO DUBAI, UAE

9/10 APR: DUBAI, UAE (OVERNIGHT)

Believe everything you've heard about Dubai - it truly is that incredible. Honestly, where else on earth can you ski both in a shopping centre and out in the desert? As one of the world's fastest growing cities, Dubai has emerged as a premier luxury travel destination, drawing visitors from all over the globe. Its dry and sunny weather, incredible shopping experiences and unique tourist attractions have helped to turn it into a bona fide hot spot where ancient and modern cultures come together.

11 APR: MUSCAT, OMAN

As one of the Middle East's oldest cities dating back to the 2nd century AD, it's hard to believe that Muscat has been open to tourists for only a few decades. But seeing is believing! From the beautifully manicured parks and long, unspoiled stretches of beach to the stone moat that still surrounds the area, it is clear that Oman's monarchy has worked hard to protect the rich history and small, safe neighbourhood feel of its capital city. Dance Workshop

14 APR: COCHIN, INDIA

One of the finest natural harbours on the Arabian coast of India, Kochi (also known as Cochin) was once known as the centre of the Indian spice trade. Nowadays, the town has a distinct European feel, due to the fact that it was once inhabited by the Portuguese, Dutch and English. Their influence on the town's forts, palaces, museums and old churches is still evident today. Which is why Kochi is known as the 'Queen of the Arabian Sea'.

16 APR: GOA (MORMUGAO), INDIA

How can you resist a place whose local motto is 'Sossegade', which translates to 'Take it Easy'? Long a favourite destination for New Age travellers seeking the transcendent good life, these days Goa is more hip than hippie. Upmarket restaurants and shopping now complement the dreamy beach life and Goa's easygoing streets make an easy and rewarding first introduction to India. Goa's historical atmosphere, shaped by a fascinating mix of Portuguese and Indian influences, is unique. The Portuguese were here for some 500 years and their presence can still be felt in customs like the siesta the easygoing Goans take every afternoon. Sossegade!

Dance Workshop

17/18 APR: MUMBAI (BOMBAY)

The Hollywood of India, Mumbai (previously known as Bombay) is a unique city pulsating with energy, life and excitement. You can find everything from vibrant street scenes and the country's best nightlife to an abundance of shops. The city serves as both the financial and entertainment capital of India, so you are just as likely to see a famous 'Bollywood' film star as you are a high-powered businessman. With all there is to see and do, you'll discover that Mumbai truly lives up to its billing as the 'City of Dreams'.

Scandinavian ADVENTURE

Aboard Queen Mary 2
3RD AUGUST 2011 ★ 12 NIGHTS

Norway and Denmark await on a truly captivating summer jaunt

From only £1499^{pp}

Free car parking

Flaam

Historic Hamburg beckons either side of six Scandinavian calls, starting with Alesund's art nouveau elegance and the photogenic villages dotted on the fertile slopes around Flaam. Wander Stavanger's vibrant markets and Oslo's friendly streets that resound with musicians in summer. Soon enough Copenhagen's Rosenborg Castle and the cobbled old town of Aarhus add their own fairy-tale flourish on Danish soil.

Copenhagen

3 AUG: SOUTHAMPTON

Board in Southampton with a simple check in and no restriction on luggage. Queen Mary 2 sails late afternoon. Settle in and join your dance hosts for a welcome cocktail party before dinner.

4 AUG: CRUISING

Here is your opportunity to foxtrot in the largest ballroom at sea. There is no better place to hone your dancing skills than under the dramatic high ceiling with its beautiful crystal chandeliers or sample afternoon tea of traditional scones with clotted cream, cakes and delicate sandwiches served by white-gloved waiters.

5 AUG: HAMBURG Full day & evening Water is a wonderful feature here - as you'll notice when you arrive along the River Elbe, investigate quirky historic districts by canal and glide past highly desirable addresses lining the Alster Lakes. Back on dry land, browse domed, Kunsthalle's artistic masterpieces, baroque St Michaeliskirche Church and the opulent Rathaus brimful of tapestries, chandeliers and portraits.

6 AUG: AT SEA

The Winter Garden, London's famous 'Kew Gardens' is the inspiration for this quiet lounge themed on an English country garden. A unique indoor water sculpture and lush greenery brings the outdoors inside. Sip a mimosa while you enjoy the early afternoon art auction, or meet up with friends for an evening of drinks and soft piano music.

7 AUG: ALESUND, NORWAY

Stretching across three islands at the mouth of magnificent Geirangerfjord, Alesund's architecture is now an eclectic mixture of mock-gothic and neo-classical with more than a dash of Art Nouveau. Nature has played its part too, as calm waters and distant snow-capped peaks add to the charm, all best seen from the kniven viewpoint.

8 AUG: FLAAM, NORWAY

You'll arrive in the 'little place between mountains', a tiny village with a huge character and sublime fjord views you could gladly gaze upon for hours. It also happens to offer one of the steepest and most spectacular rail journeys you'll ever encounter. So step aboard and ascend 3,000 feet to Myrdal passing corkscrew tunnels, coursing waterfalls and a craggy river gorge.

9 AUG: STAVANGER, NORWAY

Set amidst glassy waters and beautiful mountains, the gateway to Norway's spectacular scenic fjordland. Gamle Stavanger is the old quarter with its collection of 200 year old white wooden houses, markets, craft stores, art galleries and a 12th century cathedral modelled on Winchester Cathedral.

10 AUG: OSLO, NORWAY

Ships sail along the tranquil Oslofjord to reach Oslo, a spectacular city surrounded by snow-capped mountains and rolling green hills. Founded in 1050, it has been Norway's capital since the end of the 11th century. The modern city is an eclectic mix of ancient castles, frescoed 18th century houses, vast parks and glittering lakes.

Queen Mary 2

Queen's Room (main room for dance)

11 AUG: COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

(From Elsinore). Denmark's cosmopolitan, café-lined capital brims with outdoor zest. Join locals in the Botanical Gardens, watch them swim in the clear canals or see that famous resident - the bronze Little Mermaid, perched on her rock. Along pedestrianised Stroget pause for superb city views in its Round Tower, or tour the striking modern glass-fronted Opera House gleaming on the waterfront.

12 AUG: AARHUS, DENMARK

Soak up the vibrant ambience of Denmark's second city - a jumble of cobbled streets, lively cafes and spacious parks. Alternatively, explore its past at the Viking Museum, displaying centuries-old artefacts unearthed locally, and the Old Town Open-Air Museum with its half-timbered houses, workshops and water mill.

13 AUG: HAMBURG, GERMANY

Enjoy your day in Hamburg

14 AUG: CRUISING

The Britannia Experience - make a grand descent down the sweeping staircase of the two-deck-high Britannia Restaurant and Queen Mary 2's main dining room, which lavishly recalls the grand dining salons of ocean travel's golden age.

15 AUG: SOUTHAMPTON

Arrive early morning

YOUR SHIP

Welcome to Queen Mary 2 - the grandest, most magnificent ocean liner ever built. She's a true heir to the timeless elegance, legacy and inspiration of the great Cunard liners of legend. You'll notice it the moment you walk through her doors into her soaring Grand Lobby, and be awed from the first instance you experience the famous Cunard White Star Service™.

Mediterranean & CANARIES

Aboard Azura
21ST AUGUST 2011 ★ 12 NIGHTS

New ship!

Azura

From only £1355^{PP}

Free car parking

Madeira

The Canary Islands are in a class of their own. Where else in the world would you find luxuriant rainforest rubbing shoulders with barren rock formations, patches of pine forest weaving through one of the world's largest volcanic craters, picturesque whitewashed villages, dotted with bougainvillea and hibiscus, just miles away from rolling sand dunes? The only thing that hardly changes at all is the enviable subtropical climate, with mild winters and pleasantly warm summers...

21 AUG: SOUTHAMPTON

Board in Southampton with a simple check in and no restriction on luggage. Azura sails late afternoon. Settle in and join your dance hosts for a welcome cocktail party before dinner.

22-24 AUG: CRUISING

Azura offers an incredible choice of bars, restaurants, sports and spa facilities and entertainment all competing for your time.

26 AUG: MADEIRA

Your first port of call and you'll soon discover why it's known as the 'Garden Isle'. Hardly surprising that colourful flower markets are one of the most arresting features of Funchal, Madeira's capital. With rich volcanic soil and a magnificent climate, Funchal has many stunning gardens. The Monte Palace Tropical Garden has exotic plants from all over the world, as well as those from ancient forests native to the islands. Locally made wicker furniture, lacework and tapestries all make good buys along with the ubiquitous Madeira wine.

27 AUG: GRAN CANARIA

Gran Canaria, the third largest of the Canaries, is often described as a 'continent in miniature', thanks to its wide range of landscapes, plants and marine life. The arid south coast is dotted with cactuses and exotic blooms such as jacarandas. At the heart of the island rising above scented pine forests is the mountainous Cumbre with distinctive basalt outcrops such as Roque Nublo, almost the highest point of Gran Canaria; on a clear day, the views across to snow-capped Mount Teide on Tenerife are breathtaking.

28 AUG: LA PALMA

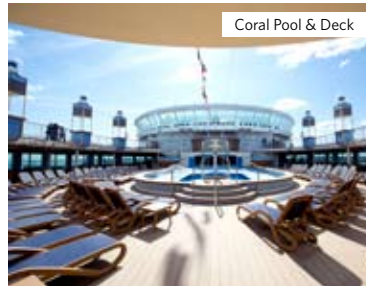

Santa Cruz is one of the prettiest harbours among the islands and easily explored on foot. A short stroll along the Avenida Maritime promenade will take you to the lovely old quarter around Plaza de Espana, which has a 16th century fountain, town hall, a magnificent Renaissance church and handicrafts market. Then there's the island's most spectacular volcanic crater, Caldera de Taburiente. This beautiful area is filled with rare animals and plant life and has been designated a national park.

29 AUG: CRUISING

If you're a film buff, you might be excited to learn that Azura features the fleet's first open air cinema. This giant screen shows a variety of classic British films, family favourites and the latest blockbusters; all accompanied by great cinema snacks!

30 AUG: LISBON, PORTUGAL

Some of the best views of the Portuguese capital come as you sail along the Tagus

Coral Pool & Deck

Pensular Restaurant

River. You pass the Belem Tower, Jeronimos Monastery and the 'Monument to the Discoveries' with its statue of Henry the Navigator, before arriving at Lisbon. Spread out over seven hills on the north of the River Tagus, Lisbon is a delightful mix of palaces, churches, art nouveau cafes, gardens, ancient castles and splendid bridges.

31 AUG: VIGO, SPAIN

Spain's busiest fishing port, Vigo sits on the rugged west coast of the province of Galicia, with the best view of the town being from the fort (Castillo del Castro) built on the hill overlooking the harbour. Walking through the steep, narrow streets of the old town you can see the daily fish market. Why not join an excursion to the nearby historic fishing village of Bayona or visit the beautiful medieval city of Santiago de Compostela, with its stunning cathedral centerpiece.

1 SEP: CRUISING

Shop 'till you drop. From perfume and jewellery to smart suits and shorts, the shops on board stock a wide range of products. If you fancy buying a few books to take home with you, make sure you pop into Chronicles, the on board bookstore located next to the Library.

2 SEP: SOUTHAMPTON

Arrive early morning.

YOUR SHIP

At the heart of Azura is her atrium, a very social venue located over three magnificent decks, with a café, art gallery, bookshop, library and shopping. Here you'll also be able to enjoy the time-honoured cruising tradition of ballroom dancing as the Atrium plays host to regular dance evenings on the beautiful inlaid wooden dance floor. The live band will set the pace, so one night there will be an elegant waltz, another a lively quickstep.
